

Model

Education

Safe house/ orphans

Case Management

Advocacy & Research

Economic Empowerment

Child Protection

Economic Empowerment

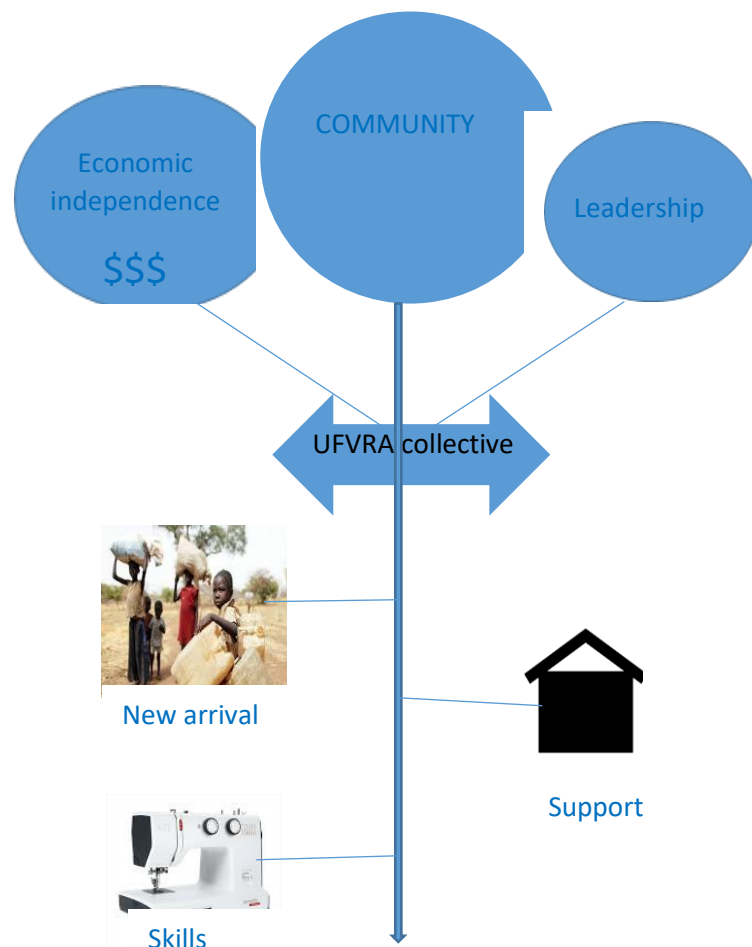

Those story for our social enterprise, those Survival Collective, starts with an adolescent lady named Anna. At period 14, Anna fled on Kenya from her local South Sudan. To 20016, Anna selected for our Girls' strengthening project. Distinguishing her potential, we supported Anna Previously, a preparing project on take in those centuries-old procedure for oppose colouring fabrics. She might have been eager will achieve her information go to UFVRA Also to show her companions this customary east African create. Through her administration and passion, those Survival Collective, need developed under an artisan aggregate from claiming over 100 youthful displaced person ladies.

Now, those Survival aggregate may be an created social endeavour that fosters heading Furthermore business oversaw economy abilities through the outline What's more handling of exceptional hand-dyed fabrics What's more materials. Here, members increase life-long entrepreneurial business What's more promoting abilities that create their certainty also get ready them to future freedom.

A UNIVERSAL

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Our artisan aggregate may be interesting in that it empowers youthful ladies should accomplish monetary Furthermore social autonomy at their pace. The majority bring profound passionate also physical scars that oblige long haul case management help. Members proceed with their recuperating inside UFVRA AUSTRALIA's strong surroundings.